

HORNSEA GOLF CLUB

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how Hornsea Golf Club uses any personal information we collect about you.

How do we collect information about you?

We collect information about you when you join as a member of Hornsea Golf Club, book a tee time, use the Clubhouse facilities, voluntarily provide feedback, participate in competitions and use our website.

How will we use the information about you?

We collect information about you to manage your membership of Hornsea Golf Club, the relevant county body and England Golf, manage your CONGU handicap, and if you agree, to email you with information we think maybe of interest to you.

Hornsea Golf Club will not share your information for marketing purposes with third parties without your express consent.

Marketing

We would like to send you information about events and products of ours and other authorised third parties which may be of interest to you. If you have consented to receive marketing, you may opt out at a later date. You have a right at any time to stop us from contacting you for marketing purposes or giving your information to third parties.

If you no longer wish to be contacted for marketing purposes, please contact Yvonne Wright.

Access to your information and correction

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you. If you would like a copy of some or all of your personal information, please write to us. We may make a small charge for this service.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

Cookies

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information is used to track visitor use of the website and to compile statistical reports on website activity.

Other websites

Our website contains links to other websites. This privacy policy only applies to Hornsea Golf Club, so if you link to other websites you should read their own privacy policy.
